Stewardship Moment

After healing the blind man in today's Gospel Jesus told him to go, to be on his way.

But the man chose to follow Jesus. Being a disciple of Jesus is a choice. The stewardship way of life likewise involves a choice, in fact many choices. We choose to be grateful, we choose to live generously, and we choose to trust that God will always provide for our needs. These are three choices central to the stewardship way of life. What choices will we make this week that give witness to our decision to follow Jesus Christ?

Monthly meeting of the Court St. Joan of Arc #1334 Catholic Daughters of the Americas will be on Thursday, November 8th at 6:30 pm at St. Joan of Arc in the School Cafeteria.

Any women 18 years of age and older who would like to attend are welcomed. If you had signed up showing interest in finding out more about who we are, please feel free to attend.

For any further information, please contact Linda Monistere, Regent at 985-651-1072 or email at dre@sjchurch.com.

Holiday Food Drive

St. Hubert parish is joining with St Peter School and the Knights of Columbus for a Holiday food drive for families in our area who are in need this year. Please place donated items in the food box in the Church.

Monetary donations are also accepted.

2019 Mass Intentions

Forms for scheduling Mass intentions and candle memorials will be available on the Activity Table in Church this weekend. No intentions will be scheduled on Mondays.

St. Charles Catholic High School, the only Catholic college prep high school in the River Parishes, will hold its annual Open House for prospective students on Monday, November 5, 2018. Open House is one of our favorite nights of the year! We look forward to welcoming many future Comets. All students in grades 6, 7, and 8 are invited to attend. This is a great time to learn about the exceptional spiritual and educational offerings at St. Charles Catholic High School in LaPlace. Parents and students will tour the school and experience firsthand what it is like to be a Comet – flying high and shining bright.

Doors will open at 5:00 pm on Monday, November 5. Assemblies will be held at 6:00 p.m. and 7:00 p.m. with continuous tours until 7:00 p.m.

Prayer for Protection against Storms and Hurricanes

Our Father in Heaven through the intercession of Our Lady of Prompt Succor, spare us during this Hurricane season from all harm. Protect us and our homes from all disasters of nature. Our Lady of Prompt succor, hasten to help us. We ask this through Christ our Lord

THE HOPE AND PROMISE OF REDEMPTION

The prophet Jeremiah prophesies the end of the Babylonian exile. He describes how the weak and sorrowful people now return with joy. These are the scattered people of God: the blind and the lame, the mothers and pregnant women. They shall be led along an easy road so that no one will stumble. The Lord's kindness and mercy are on all these weak and broken people.

Here and in Psalm 126 we find the most lovely poetic images of God's love and care for us. "Those that sow in tears / shall reap rejoicing. Although they go forth weeping, / carrying the seed to be sown, / they shall come back rejoicing, / carrying their sheaves" (Psalm 126:5-6). Although God had to punish Israel for their many sins, God never forgot them, scattered as they were, and brings them all back to the land of their ancestors, there to flourish and be joyful again. We can see in this the hope and the promise of our own redemption, gathered from the far corners of the earth into the great banquet of God.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — I will lead the people to brooks of water, on a level road, so that none shall stumble (Jeremiah 31:7-9).

Psalm — The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy (Psalm 126).

Second Reading — It was not Christ who glorified himself, but rather the one who said to him: You are my son: this day I have begotten you (Hebrews 5:1-6).

Gospel — Immediately the blind man received his sight and followed Jesus on the way (Mark 10:46-52).

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Today is the feast of the Forty Martyrs of England and Wales, the first representative body of many Catholics who died for their faith between 1535 and 1679 to be beatified or canonized. Almost all of them died at Tyburn, a place of public execution near today's Marble Arch in Hyde Park, London. The first to suffer were Carthusian monks who refused to swear an oath supporting Henry VIII as supreme head of the Church in England, and the last was Saint Oliver Plunkett, the Primate Archbishop of Ireland. The method of execution was particularly vile, since the condemned were hanged and their living bodies quartered to be displayed around London as a horrific warning.

Today, the tree-like gallows provides the design of a religious symbol, the canopy over the altar of the martyrs in Tyburn Convent. There, at the heart of the bustling city, a monastic community of women practices contemplative prayer and "spiritual hospitality" in the Benedictine tradition. Oddly, the community is French in origin; it was expelled from France a century ago when France outlawed contemplative monastic life. England, where the laws against Catholicism had been lifted, invited the community in. In gratitude to their new homeland, and in honor of those who gave their lives for the Catholic faith, the nuns came to Tyburn. In the public crypt, coats of arms stand for each of the 350 martyrs. A Web site visit is possible at www.tyburnconvent.org.uk.

A SAINTLY DEFINITION

The saint does everything that any other decent person does, only somewhat better and with a totally different motive.
